Mayonnaise

Save your smile
Everything fades through time
I'm lost for words
Endlessly waiting for you

Stay with me
Yes, I know, this can't be
As morning comes
I'll say goodbye to you when I'm done
Through the sun

Because I'm waiting for you
Waiting for this dream to come true
Just to be with you
And if I die
Remember these lines
I'm always here, guarding your life
Guarding your life

I am yours
And I'm completely trapped in your soul
Dazed and confused
Swept away with your whole world

'Cause you're my star
Invincible, haunting and far
Grace under fire
Something is deep in my heart, in my heart

Because I'm waiting for you
Waiting for this dream to come true
Just to be with you
And if I die
Remember these lines
I'm always here, guarding you

Slowly falling into you
I'm obsessed with the fact that I'm with you
I can't breathe without you

I'm waiting for you
Waiting for this dream to come true
Just to be with you
And if I die
Remember these lines
I'm always here, guarding your life
