

Sunshine

Maysa

Sunshine, sunshine
Sunshine, sunshine

When the nights are long
And I'm missing you.
The only thing that I can do
Is wait and lie here patiently.
And wonder just where you can be.

When you finally arrive I can feel the joy
You've returned to me and you're
Mine once more

What I have lost
Could not be found
Until the time you come around

Sunshine, sunshine
You dry all my tears
Sunshine, sunshine
You shed light on all my fears
Sunshine, sunshine
You fill my soul with life
Now everything is gonna be alright

I feel your touch, your warm embrace
Your gentle kiss upon my face
And on the days you're not around
That's when my soul is feeling down

When you finally arrive I can feel the joy
You've returned to me and you're
Mine once more

What I have lost
Can not be found
Until the time you come around

Sunshine, sunshine
You dry all my tears
Sunshine, sunshine
You shed light on all my fears
Sunshine, sunshine
You fill my soul with life
Now everything is gonna be alright
