Gone Without A Reason

You walked me home after school You carried my bag and my jacket Most of the children just envied my friend They were so jealous of me at the end Maybe we lived in a dream Maybe we were only children Now that I'm older and now that you're gone I still don't know what went wrong

My love (my love), for you (for you) Will never die, that's true Somehow I feel that I lost a friend Can I accept it, maybe I can't Gone without a reason, like the wind

I will remember your smile I will remember the morning Thunder and lightning came out of the sky I was so scared that I felt I could die You held me close in your arms Finally we were together Now that I'm older and now that you're gone I still don't know what went wrong

My love (my love), for you (for you) Will never die, that's true Somehow I feel that I lost a friend Can I accept it, maybe I can't Gone without a reason, like the wind

My love (my love), for you (for you) Will never die, that's true Somehow I feel that I lost a friend Can I accept it, maybe I can't Gone without a reason, like the wind

Gone without a reason, like the wind
