

If You And I

Maywood

If you and I could always be together,
then I won't mind a surprising stormy weather.
I won't feel sad and I won't feel blue,
because the sun comes shining through.
I you and I could talk to every flower,
then I won't mind to wait another hour.
It all works out the way it has to be as long as I've got you and you've got me.

Long ago,
I had my doubts and questions.
Now I know
we can't fail, so...
