

give up!

mazie

I don't care, it doesn't matter
It's gonna be okay or whatever
Well, if it's true
Then good for you
I don't care, it doesn't matter
When I gave up, everything got better
You know it's true
You should give up too

I'd do anything for a minute to cry
When my breathin' stops, maybe I'll find the time
I've been feelin' so much, I don't feel at all
And I got no luck tryna sleep it off
But I do it again, again, again, again, again

Nothing's as bad as it seems
So much worse than you might think
Ignorance is everything, so I

I don't care, it doesn't matter
It's gonna be okay or whatever
Well, if it's true
Then good for you
I don't care, it doesn't matter
When I gave up, everything got better
You know it's true
You should give up too

Stop thinkin' too hard, what's it gonna change? Mm
We're just playin' along in a losing game, ah
So I get off on fightin' strangers
Gettin' high and askin' favors
Why does it feel so nice
When I, when I stop tryin'?

When I stop tryin' (Oh)
When I stop tryin' (No, no, no)
When I stop tryin' (Oh)

Nothing's as bad as it seems
So much worse than you might think
Ignorance is everything, so I

I don't care, it doesn't matter
It's gonna be okay or whatever
Well, if it's true
Then good for you
I don't care, it doesn't matter
When I gave up, everything got better
You know it's true
You should give up too
