

Redemption

MC Lars

Back from Bracca, it's your boy Cal Kestis
Looking fresh in my vest, yet I'm restless
Saber by my side, it's been 5 years since
I met Darth Vader and this journey commenced
Since then, I had to make that decision
Destroy the holocron which listed all the children
So force sensitive, I'd save the Jedi Order
Hold on, did I tell you I'm a rebel peace supporter?
Prevent the younglings from becoming Inquisitors
Deleted data, now I got a bunch of visitors
Yeah, they're after us, but they can't capture us
On the run with BD-1, watch 'em eat our dust
Bleak times, but we're still holding on, it's official now
Own the Jedi title, took a mystic vow
Exploring force abilities, I'm ready to fight
Guided by the light, I think we're going to be alright

My master slain, I lost my way
Betrayed by clones on that dark day
The Force within, a fading light
Can I fight the strength to win this fight?
The journey's long the battle's hard
But I'll press on to heal these scars

Controlling the urges from the dark side
Got my code, got my droid, but these are very hard times
Tryna stay one step ahead, heart is heavy like a freight train
PTSD, night terrors, tryna stay sane
Replay the same over again in my brain
Gotta carry on, this is for those who were slain, few remain
It all started with Order 66
Throw Rayvis in the mix, thinking we shouldn't exist
I was sitting on the fence, now I truly picked a side
Living by the code, we do more than just survive
With each step that I take, I feel the weight
Of being one of the last, a Jedi's fate
The Empire's pursuit, they're a constant threat
Plus, I can never relax, I can never forget
Bleak times, but we're still holding on, it's official now
Own the Jedi title, took a mystic vow
Trusting in the Force, evil won't shake me up
Jaro said it's fine to fall if you keep on getting up

My master slain, I lost my way
Betrayed by clones on that dark day
The Force within, a fading light
Can I fight the strength to win this fight?
The journey's long the battle's hard
But I'll press on to heal these scars

With each new day, I'll find my way
Fighting the darkness in this galaxy far away
Far away, far away, far away, far away
