

Revenge Of The Nerds II

MC Lars

It's the "Revenge of the Nerds"... part two! Featuring the most rappers I've ever had on one track. Hey Mega Ran, Beefy, Schäffer the Darklord, SkyBlew, MC Frontalot, YTCracker, LEX the Lexicon Artist and Former Fat Boys! Let's collaborate remotely!

Look at everything we've done since the last one dropped (dropped)
Snowden, Hamilton, achievement unlocked (locked)!
"Weird Al" on the charts - with the number spot (spot)
Stil Easy as Pi with our VPNs blocked, like 3.1415926535897932384626433 (sure, we're)
Anonymous autonomous, with documents synonymous
It's feeling like Metropolis our futuristic monolith
Through twenty years of touring in a small rental van
Learned nerdcore fans are the best in the land!
Socially distant for decades, it's great!
My clique's twice as sick, COVID38
Though coronavirus canceled some shows
Here's quarantine track with every rapper I know

We've been pushed down in the dirt
But now we're chillin on sand
It's paradise in the future
Nintendo Switch in our hands
Teased cuz we're fat or we're squirts
Now it's our names on your shirts
We think it's time that you learned
We think it's time that you heard
We think it's time we stood up
We think it's time we returned
We think it's time we were heard
This is the "Revenge of the Nerds II"

(Ran!) Fake it 'till you make it, make it till it's greatness
Face it, we here, and you can't escape it!
Flow remaining gorgeous, you remaining dormant
Doing it before they had a name for it!
Saw a hole in the game, so I filled it
Got bullied, it was too much to deal with Man, he ain't got a stomach for the realness
So I saw a mic, and a stage? So I killed it!
It seems I fit the description of a kid who would skip his detentions
The lesson I learned is don't ask for forgiveness
Be dope and they give you permission (okay!)
Y'all know what time it is, the goal's always dominance
Never imagined a nerd would rise to prominence
Shy kid on the mic shining, that's common sense
YTCrack told y'all on "Mega Nerd"
Best beats best show, most clever words
Most friendly, dope MCs, put it all together
Be the best that you ever heard
Lambdas, nice with the stanzas!
Brighter than Kansas, heighten the standards
Better remember you heard
Gritty reboot of "Revenge of the Nerds"!

I think I'd better put it simply
Back in elementary I'd be dead meat

Since then been swinging hard like I'm Gimli
But found a new horizon, turned a new leaf
But I worry bout the future of this nerdcore
Some of them don't really know what they was in for Hoping that I am still worthy like I'm fat Thor
I said I like a lot of nerds so I made more
Now my babies running first place
Posing by the bookcase, anticipate their mixtapes
Pretend im not amazed just to save face
Hooked em on a tabletop phase after one taste
Imagine thinking im a phoney
Never played Zelda or like a little pony
While im playing on your station like im Sony
Holla at those people throwing hate, they don't know me
I'm here to cheer you on for the long run
Eliminating all the fear till it's all fun
When i come in all sincere they don't want none
Like the twenty sided die said they get stunned
We got picked on and it sucked
Collectively had enough
So if you're down on your luck
Know we don't care bout that stuff

Before I put pedals to floor mats, when my fans were a handful of dorm rats
I saw what I want like a Rorschach, I was too morally poor to afford that
So I slipped into purple and wore black, and I rode in like Death upon horse back
With a lore that first formed back, in the nineties with rhymes I recorded o n a 4-track
I made some friends, and we toured and made memories
Building our skills and a legacy
I made some mistakes, but like, them's are the breaks
And so bridges were burned and earned enemies
I found my calling, and I got a following
Bottles of bitter pills, swallowed 'em
Now I make a living, I take what I'm given
While armies of misfits are hollering

We've been pushed down in the dirt
But now we're chillin on sand
It's paradise in the future
Nintendo Switch in our hands
Teased cuz we're fat or we're squirts
Now it's our names on your shirts
We think it's time that you learned
We think it's time that you heard
We think it's time we stood up
We think it's time we returned
We think it's time we were heard
This is the "Revenge of the Nerds II"

See my story is a tad off beat
From the streets to foster homes found a retreat
In the games I compete in, I didn't wan to keep beefing
On weekends, mind off the deep end dreaming
I was in a cartoon universe
Where they don't die over colors combining diverse souls into one space
Running home like I crossed over 3rd base
So I can watch Toonami, later on Tommy and Chucky
With cereal tricks, PS1 if I'm lucky, trust me
Dreams, video games, life, love anime
Cartoons and a ink pen - Were my keys through the locked doors
Then I plugged in to the music like an aux cord

Oh lord! Doubled up with the greats
Super Mario with fly suit and cape

Frontalot been up in this business for a minute now
Roll the windows down I'm leaning out
Act as if you don't see me now, I don't mind!
Put the record on and be like who's that guy? hm
I don't sigh, express myself only verbally, thick with hyperbole
Pledge devotion to the nerd you get a fleur-de-lys. ah!
Certainly I took it down deep internally
Made me chafe at every graceless nerdcore absurdity!

Revenge is a dish
Served at temperature colder than this
In the world of the switch
Blow you a kiss blow up a cap
Save me a spot on the beat for a rap
Used to ignore me now put a fist in the face of the normies
Flexing my army make origami
The papers encased by the waist near my johnny
Illuminerdy the journey subverting the flurry of versions
Occurring through agile endurance
The crypto insurance
I carry to bury the state if they testing
My weapon expression
Born in america born to inherit a throne in my era
To swear to the Spam born with a mic in my hand tell my fam
Go and hustle that work on demand

I used to be a bully then they bullied me back
But they left my self-determination fully intact
I took a look in my past, to see that I was the problem
Now that I have come to solve em nothing's holding me back
I got a mind full of messages, a pen full of pages
Shot up half a dozen levels like I'm crushing my stages
I want the gatekeepers raging when my name makes papers
That a crazy weird Asian could waste the tastemakers
When you write off the work cause you hate on the label
You're taking diversity off of the table
If bias is something you're in opposition to Know I'm a way better Alex to listen to
If you don't dig it, well you're missing a lot
You can call us nonconformist when we're calling the shots
And not a virus could stop us, we got the power of thought
We'll chase a white hot destiny with all that we've got It's like that

We've been pushed down in the dirt
But now we're chillin on sand
It's paradise in the future
Nintendo Switch in our hands
Teased cuz we're fat or we're squirts
Now it's our names on your shirts
We think it's time that you learned
We think it's time that you heard
We think it's time we stood up
We think it's time we returned
We think it's time we were heard
This is the "Revenge of the Nerds II"

Do I even want my nerd pin?
Honorary member of a Star Wars garrison
But when i make a zoom call, 'cause I'm a covid shut in

Can I be sure that some g men
Or maybe China can, listen in
Can I trust literally anything
With wifi connection?
Or social media messagin
Used to sway an election
And all our heroes
With the ones and the zeros
Marc Zuckerberg and Sergey Brin
First gen alpha nerds went
Full libertarian
Authoritarian, it's scary man
Talking bout the igeneration
But maybe the next iteration
Nerd 2.0 will bring a flow
To the internet nation
And we'll all go
White hat, black hat nah
Let's call em rainbow hats
Bringing private data back
With no data caps
Gen Z nerdlings
Need to bring the tri lambs back
I'm concerned my gen's nerds turned Into alpha beta jerks
So let's get revenge again shoutin these words:
This is the revenge of the nerds 2
