

Dear Sarah, I know it's been a long time
I heard that you got married, I heard you're doing fine
I heard you bought a house, that you're happy and in love
I heard you got your PhD, I heard you had a son time flies girl - how's your brother?
How's Seattle? How's your Dad? How's your mother?
I know I missed you when I last came to town
You dropped off my guitar, but then you had to bounce so many memories, in that beat up case
Big Sur, Idaho, Tahoe and the Bay
And it was hard, how college changed it all,
Thought we'd always be together but, life it proved us wrong
Prom night, we looked so young in those photos
When I picked you up in my parents red Volvo
I wish you nothing but the best, you deserve it
That mean song I wrote, well I wish you'd never heard it

Power, wisdom, courage (I found the Triforce and I'll always let it guide me)
Power, wisdom, courage (I've got the pieces and they've always been inside me)
Power, wisdom, courage (I know it's been a while and we rarely speak)
Power, wisdom, courage (I'm letting go these days, guess I found the link)

Dear Mary, How's everything in Hyrule?
hard to believe I've known you since high school
Remember how we met at that Pharcyde show?
One kiss, that was it, thought I'd never let you go In the mountains we kicked it, so spiritual you always brought the fire when we freestyled lyrical Those nights down in Oakland by Lake Merritt were the best
Comic-Con, Amsterdam, SXSW
some nights you made me happy, some nights you made me lazy
Some nights made me jealous, some nights you made me crazy
Some nights you made me laugh, some nights we just relaxed
You made that food delicious, I'll admit you made me fat
So I had to move on - found support online
I threw away the tools that had kept you in my life Found freedom at last when I realized that This Ocarina of Time, had kept me stuck in the past

Power, wisdom, courage (I found the Triforce and I'll always let it guide me)
Power, wisdom, courage (I've got the pieces and they've always been inside me)
Power, wisdom, courage (No longer will I let you consume or define me)
Power, wisdom, courage (I had to let you go and leave that dark world behind me)

Dear Andrew, how you been dude, what's new?
it's been a minute since I last checked in with you
I know that it's been hard watching mom and dad get older
But realize that they're proud of their little rapper soldier
Wish that you could give them grand kids pretty soon
But your schedule on the road doesn't leave a lot of room
Plus this master of the suitcase, master of the sublet
Is not honestly ready to be a dad yet wish you had real place to keep all you stuff

'cause these storage locker bills they keep piling up you hope your sister's not alone, forever and that your Uncle Joel somehow gets better Losing touch with friends 'cause you're always on the go Fighting with your girl out in London on the phone ignore the serpents in the shadows, you'll be fine dude
You've got your music and amazing fans behind you

Power, wisdom, courage (I found the Triforce and I'll always let it guide me)

Power, wisdom, courage (I've got the pieces and they've always been inside me)

Power, wisdom, courage (You're talking negative but I can't even hear you)

Power, wisdom, courage (I'm watching Ganon eat my dust in the rear view)

Power, wisdom, courage

Power, wisdom, courage

Power, wisdom, courage

Power, wisdom, courage
