like trying to be somebody that aint you'll get gank from every promoter that come your way if he see you faking then he gon fake your pay you need to parle with a brother like truebreed cuz i cld see the way that you act too busy trying to pressure friends trying to act like a mac living your life like a superstar you can still get God no matter who you are e

But aint nobody hearing what i got to say [x2]

Thats right
i can't lie it feels real good being on stage rockin 20 thousand fans and getting paid its like a dream come true i come a long way from the swapmeets and 20 dollar rap tapes on top of all this who'd ever thought i'd be blessed with that Zapp and Roger voice box i love ya rog, lester and terry too changed my life and inspired me to be true i keep ridin for my folks in AZ Keep making love songs for all my ladies after all you're the ones that kept me alive when NB Ridaz broke up you didnt fall for the lies you're the reason why i just cant quit why my pages on myspace like 20 million hits a superstar naw thats not i he's name is roger and he lives in the sky living your life like a superstar you can still get God no matter who you are

respect will be the key to this game we play But aint nobody hearing what i got to say [x2]
