

The Cross

MC MAGIC

Sometimes I feel like my world is falling apart
And no one understands my life
Then I remember that you gave your life for me
That moment when they nailed you on the cross

In the name of the father, the son and the holy spirit
If this the last thing that I write I need the whole world to hear it
See I'm that kid that came from nothing
Welfare and public housing
It was the Lord that gave me the strength to always be something

And this is why I'm here today
To let ya'll know no matter what happens there's a better way
Pick up your Bible drop down to your knees
Only God can set us free from these ugly disease

You see the world is full of lies
Families broken mamas cry
Addictions got us thinking there's no option suicide
Two thousand years ago on the cross you gave your life
And now my sins can be forgiven
Thank You, Jesus Christ

Sometimes I feel like my world is falling apart
And no one understands my life
Then I remember that you gave your life for me
That moment when they nailed you on the cross

I remember my life without You, Lord I was broken
Heart broke and torn to pieces without your love
The love from above within I felt speechless breathless
Without you I miss you I need you, I was hurting

My life was filled with chaos dramatic so tragic
I've experienced my share of losses but I always remember them crosses
While at church being introduced to your love, you were all I ever needed
Without you my soul was heated
My life was defeated neglected
Everyday so hectic my life of sin didn't allow me to win
Living in the fast lane without nothing to gain
But now everything is better with Jesus
No more tears and no more pain

Sometimes I feel like my world is falling apart
And no one understands my life
Then I remember that you gave your life for me
That moment when they nailed you on the cross

Sometimes I feel like my world is falling apart
And no one understands my life
Then I remember that you gave your life for me
That moment when they nailed you on the cross
