

The Only 1

MC MAGIC

You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to loose you I'd be loosing everything
You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to
loose you I'd be loosing everything

I think the day that I met you heaven opened up the skies
And sent me an angel to change my life
Cause ever since that day I ain't never been the same Juss to stand next to you is like a rush for me
I still remember one cold night when I confessed
And I would go krazie juss to have one kiss
The more that I see you the more you penetrate
My soul with yur eyes dreamin everynight
Wut my days would be like if I could luvv you forever
To hear yur pretty voice say that we belong together
Maybe to have you is like a million to one
But the truth is to me girl

You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to
loose you I'd be loosing everything
You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to loose you {I told you I never wanna loose you girl} I'd be loos ing everything

I never wanna make you cry girl keep that on yur mind
When you need somebody more than juss a friend I'm on yur side
To hold you close when yur nights get cold
To remind you everyday that yur so beautiful
I know that sometimes life is juss not fair
So when it rains in yur heart I'm a be right there
You see life is short and every minute that pass
Is a moment gone forever and it's never comin bakk
It's kinda krazie how time has a way
Of making all these memories juss fade away
So if there's juss one thing that you remember bout me
Remember that I luvv you unconditionally

You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to
loose you I'd be loosing everything
You're the only one you make my life complete if I was ever to loose you I'd be loosing everything
