

Ay! It's that Chicano Love Music, Jenny Jenny 69 (oh oh oh oh)
And MC Magic
A lil something for the low rides (lil something for ya)

I don't think they ready for this one
Turn me up in the headphones
(This is dedicated to the one I love)

Do you remember the first time when I met you
Those butterflies in my stomach something brand new Late DTR just me and you
Who'd ever think that you would be my boo

Yeah my unicorn my one in a milli
You never lied to me and that's for really
I'm tryna show you that I'm down for life
Baby let's keep it real I'm tryna be your wife

She the wifey type pretty eyes from the west side
And she get down in the cocina no lie
I could never find another like you
The only girl that turns my grey skies blue

I promise girl you my only desire
My gratitude like Earth Wind and Fire
Mamacita always keep it real
I love it when you tell me how you feel

You make me feel like I'm your baby girl
You make me feel I'm sitting on top of the world
Every time we cruise sitting right by your side
The only thing I need is you and me for life
(Yeah)

Dime lo que quieras to lo voy a regalar
Donde tu vayas allí es donde quiero estar
Cuantas noches estuve sin tu amor
Ahora cada día siento tu calor

Es un tesoro que encontramos entre tu y yo
Yeah, dos diamantes un amor
That's why I'm never gon' give you up
Never gon' let you down

You make me feel like I'm your baby girl
You make me feel I'm sitting on top of the world
Every time we cruise sitting right by your side
The only thing I need is you and me for life

You make me feel like I'm your baby girl
You make me feel I'm sitting on top of the world
Every time we cruise sitting right by your side
The only thing I need is you and me for life
