

Can't Be Found

MC5

Anybody wanna tell me the truth
Can't be found
Seen it with my own eyes isn't that enough proof
Can't be found
Gimme understanding in a world that's angry
Can't be found
I'm hanging by a thread
And I'm unsatisfied
Is everybody going crazy?
Cause baby so am I

Anybody want humility and grace?
Can't be found
Can you stop the lying in my face?
Can't be found
All I get is a vacant stare
As it's burning down
Looking for the lost art of acceptance
Can't be found

All the rungs of deception
And the tongues of dissent
Nobody wants to listen anymore
Everybody got their changes and laws and the fear
I can't decide what the fuck is going on anymore
But we gonna survive
We gonna feel alive

Well the grass isn't greener
If it's all on fire
When I reach for the answers
I get burned by a liar
Where are you now
Just hiding in shadows
Like a spider to the fly
But we're gonna survive
We gonna feel alive

I been holding onto things way to long
In this dirty town
Old disappointments old wrongs
No changing it now
Every time I reach for the golden ring
Can't be found
Nothing left to do except to dance and sing
As it's burning down

Can't be found
Can't be found
Oh baby
Can't be found
We gonna feel alive
Can't be found
Can't be found
