

This Broken Heart

McAuley Schenker Group

One thing I know and only get better
You only gotta keep it under control
And if you like it just reach out and touch it
No one can stop you 'cause your heart knows how to take it

How many times did you think you're goin' crazy
Over and over till you nearly lost your mind
How many times in your life did it come easy
I tell you nothin' 'cause nothin' don't come easy
Oh, nothin' come easy!

Temptations hard to make the right decisions
In this city where hearts are made of stone
Broken promises in love I should have known it
They'll screw you over if you don't know how to beat it

How many times have you heard I really love you
And you believe it, 'cause you believe in love
How many times have you cried when the doors were slammin'
Until your world was crashin' in from up above

O-oh! This broken heart
O-oh! This broken heart

O-oh! This broken heart
O-oh! This broken heart

I'm breakin' from these emotions
I need to mend this broken heart
I'm breakin' to find a brand new start

I'm breakin' from these emotions
I need to mend this broken heart
I'm breakin' to find a brand new start

Keep movin' on, runnin' with the changes
You'll be much stronger more than ever before
No one can break somethin' already broken
In little pieces when the words are freshly spoken

How many times did you think you knew the answers
To all the problems that you had on your mind
How many times have you tried to turn your life around
Just keep on tryin' till you reach for more solid

O-oh! This broken heart
O-oh! This broken heart
O-oh! This broken heart
O-oh! This broken heart
