

Gone

McBusted

Always the same
Too much the pain
You are to blame
And I know I got to get myself
Back in the game
Forget your name
I need a change
Coz you're such a hazard to my health

The moment that you think there's nothing wrong
With moving on you know you must be long gone

I'm done thinking about you forever
And ever
Now I'm through
Being used
So I'm not going back there
Not ever
I'll never
Not for you
Not for you
I'm long gone
Long gone

Now I can breathe
Watching you leave
You can't believe
That this is what I wanted
It came so easily
Setting you free
It's alright with me
If you go out there and flaunt it

The moment that you think there's nothing wrong
With moving on you know you must be long gone

I'm done thinking about you forever
And ever
Now I'm through
Being used
So I'm not going back there
Not ever
I'll never
Nor for you
Not for you
I'm long gone
Long gone

I'm doing us both a favour
Let's say goodbye but not see you later on
Coz now you're long gone, gone, gone

I'm done thinking about you forever
And ever
Now I'm through
Being used
So I'm not going back there

Not ever
I 'll never
Nor for you
Not for you
I 'm long gone
Long gone

(Gone, gone, gone)
Long gone
Long gone
(Gone, gone, gone)
