

Dear Everyone, I'm Sorry

McCafferty

And it's lips sealed, eyes locked, head down
Just like you mean it
Keep your distance
I'm so
Lips sealed, eyes locked, head down
Just like you mean it
Keep your distance
I'm so

Six feet under, her face still haunts me
I feel your heartbeat, but I'm not breathing
The taste from his lipstick is stuck on her headlights
I've never been this close, but I'll be alright

I'll kick the door, I'll run the field
I'll tell my friends that I'm in love
I'll break my neck, just for the the girl
I've never seen without her clothes
She shakes her head, she says she is
Her hair is blonde, my face is young
I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw

I'll kick the door, I'll run the field
I'll tell my friends that I'm in love
I'll break my neck just for the the girl
I've never seen without her clothes
She shakes her head, she says she is
Her hair is blonde, my face is young
I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw

I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw
I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw
I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw
I'm turning red, I'm breaking down
I lost my face inside her jaw
I lost my face inside her jaw
