

Donnie

McCafferty

He sees a rabbit in a mask, he knows that everything is fine
Hey, Donnie, where you at my man? Hey, Donnie, you alright? I'm fine!

And I will sleep like I used to, my body is older
I broke when I had to, I know that he loved her

Her cell phone just rings now
I never gets answers
She hits back when she has to
You think she got these black eyes on her own?
I hear her boyfriend hits her twice as hard
But, man, I'm sure that I will never know
She's got tattoos down her ribcage
She's got tattoos down her back
She's got a list of all the reasons why
She's sure that Donnie's never coming back

Hey, Donnie, where you at, man? Hey, Donnie, you alright? I'm fine!

Hey, sweetheart, are you broken yet? 'Cause that heart of yours looks awfully nice

Hey, Donnie, where you at, man? Hey, Donnie, you alright? I'm fine!

Hey, sweetheart, are you broken yet? 'Cause that heart of yours looks awfully nice

And I simply can't do this, my hair is disgusting
My lipstick is faded, I know that he used me
The scars on my heart are the scars on his heart
I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time

And I simply can't do this, my hair is disgusting
My lipstick is faded, I know that he used me
The scars on my heart are the scars on his heart
I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time

I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time
I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time
I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time
I promise I'm not scared, I just need some more time

Hey, Donnie, man I've got bruises for you
Hey, Donnie, man I've got bruises for you (Oh fuck!)
Hey, Donnie, man I've got bruises for you
Hey, Donnie
