

The car won't start love
Without my gasoline
And when your sister died
That changed up everything
Carnival ride
Please wait in line
Please just obey
The warning signs
In seventh grade
I lost my way
I couldn't write
I misbehaved

And walking home
And getting jumped
And getting high
Enough's enough
I'm so thankful for your thoughts and prayers
But my son's dead can you please help me
Find him I'm so lonely

And you were counting the time
Until your baby came home
But she was shot in the head
And somebody slit her throat
The car won't start love
Without my gasoline
You prayed for innocence
I'll give you tragedy
Boy with the lives of the ones that I took
I enjoy the way you look when you are feeling sad

And walking home
And getting jumped
And getting high
Enough's enough
I'm so thankful for your thoughts and prayers
But my son's dead can you please help me
Find him I'm so lonely
I'm so thankful for your thoughts and prayers
But my son's dead can you please help me
Find him I'm so lonely
