Well, I need more than you
And I need more than just a basement
And the stars up on the sky
Look like the stars from my old room
And will you look at me?
You shut your mouth while I am speaking
Don't you understand?
Don't you understand?

Well, what is love she asks?
She slit her wrists inside the bath
I'll hold your hands until the end
I'll hold your hands until the end
Well, what is love he asks?
He slit his wrists inside the bath
Nobody held his hands
Nobody held his hands

But, hey, I hold on for unclean visions
If you love me, let me go
And car keys are inside my pocket
If you love me, let me go
But, I hold on for unclean visions
If you need me, I'm at home
My car keys sit inside my pocket
If you love me, I'm at home

But, I hold on for unclean visions
If you want me, I'm at home
My car keys sit inside my pocket
If you love me, let me go

But, I hold on for unclean visions
If you need me, I'm at home
My car keys sit inside my pocket
If you love me, let me go, oh
If you love me, let me go, oh god
If you love me, let me go, oh god
If you love me, let me go, oh god
Oh, god, oh, god, oh, god, oh, god
