

Oh My

McCafferty

When you grow up you'll be my bride
The loveless girl turned lover sighed

And whoa-oh-oh-oh I was happy
That you were so glad
That everything worked out
But doctors said
That cancer is brutal
And March is too long
And six feet later
You're gone, and I'm old

But when you fell in the bedroom
And you whispered my name
You said, "Oh my angel, my darling
We'll be together someday"
And when you get up to heaven
Will you tell all the angels my name?
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling
We're together again"

And your eyes were dim, like the last time in forever
I loved him, but he's so on and off
And your eyes were dim, for the last time in forever
I loved him, but he's so on and off

And whoa-oh-oh-oh I was happy
That you were so glad
That everything worked out
But doctors said
That cancer is brutal
And March is too long
And six feet later
You're gone, and I'm old

And when you fell in the bedroom
And you whispered my name
You said, "Oh my angel, my darling
We'll be together someday"
And when you get up to heaven
Will you tell all the angels my name?
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling
We're together again"
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling
We're together again"
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling"
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling"
You'll say, "Oh my angel, my darling"
Oh my angel, my darling
