

Unforgivable Curse #3

McCafferty

Dark lord took away my sun today
Dark lord took away my boy forever
It was lightning out when I saw his body there
But his skin and his eyes weren't his
Yeah

She said her boyfriend had been in some kind of accident
But when she called his phone it went straight to voicemail
Text "hey babe are you alright I hope I get to see you tonight
I know we always fight but God you made me feel so loved" I

Am useless without her I hope I dissolve
A sleep in the shower our bodies enfold
You know that I loved her my timing was awkward
I know that you're happy for that I am glad
I'm useless without her I hope I dissolve
A sleep in the shower our bodies enfold
I know that I loved her my timing is awkward
I know that you're happy for that I am glad

I'm useless without her I hope that I dissolve
A sleep in the shower our bodies enfold
I know that I loved her my timing is awkward
I know that you're happy for that I am glad

Stay away stay away from him
He only wants one thing
Pentagram on his chin
He tattoos everything
Never shows up for work
Only pays up for drugs
Never been on a date
Commitment takes too long
I'm screaming in his face
I tell her he's a bitch
He knows what makes me mad
He knows what makes me tick
A needle in his arm
A prophecy to split
You said that he would try
He said that you would quit

I'm useless without her I hope that I dissolve
A sleep in the shower our bodies enfold
I know that I loved her my timing is awkward
I know that you're happy for that I am glad

I'm useless without her the magic oh yeah
I'm useless without her her magic oh yeah
I'm useless without her the magic oh yeah
I'm useless without her the magic
