

Break Me

Mcfly

In your eyes there's a gravity
Pulling in every heart in your way
This could all end in tragedy
But the fire inside of me
Won't stop burning until you feel the same

Won't you break me
And make me feel bruised
Won't you break me
And make me feel used
Cause I want to know

I'm no stranger to agony
I get high off your dark twisted ways
In the eyes of Hyperion
We can both find Elysium
But not trying is worse than the pain

Won't you break me
And make me feel bruised
Won't you break me
And make me feel used
Cause I want to know

Come on let me hold you
Push until it's over
Then turn over and do it again
Cause I envy the air that touches your hair
And if it was me there'd be wind everywhere
I'm ready to break into pieces so move if you dare

Honey, break me
And make me feel...
Bruise me, rip me, use me, baby
Yeah...
Feel used...
You know, baby
Break me
Make me feel used...

Break me
And make me feel used
Break me
And make me feel bruised
Won't you break me
And make me feel used
