

Watching the waves of time
Break on the shores of mine
I'll just observe and write
In words that rhyme
I've seen it all before
Stars to the oceans floor
Closing my eyes, I'm sure
There's so much more

If you wanna know
What the future holds
Look inside your soul
Only then you'll go
Higher, higher, Hyperion
Higher, higher, Hyperion

And I've heard the Sirens sing
I've smelt the scent of spring
And I could touch everything
But feel nothing

If you wanna know
What the future holds
Look inside your soul
Only then you'll go
Higher, higher, Hyperion
Higher, higher, Hyperion

And I've seen horizons from islands
But you beat the blue
Your eyes could kill the view
And I've seen horizons from islands
But you beat the blue
Your eyes could kill the view, Hyperion

If you wanna know
What the future holds
Look inside your soul
Only then you'll go
Higher, higher, Hyperion
Higher, higher, Hyperion
Higher, higher, Hyperion
Higher, higher, Hyperion

And I've seen horizons from islands
But you beat the blue
Your eyes could kill the view, Hyperion
And I've seen horizons from islands
But you best the blue
Your eyes could kill the view, Hyperion
