Mad About You

Mcfly

Last night
We said things we didn't mean and had that big fight
I'll admit I was wrong and that you were right
I didn't want you to leave, caught in your headlights
But I could tell that you had to drive

(Ooh)
(Ooh)

Daylight
Came with a wake up call and my best mate's like
"Calm yourself, she'll be back"

That's why I don't worry 'bout tomorrow
But right now, you can't see that 'cause you're so

Mad about the things you can never change
Mad about a thought that you can't explain
Mad about your heart when it breaks in two
But I'm mad about you
Mad about a fight from a year ago
Mad because you can't seem to let it go
Mad because I know your every move
'Cause I'm mad about-
Just mad about you
So mad about you
I'm mad about you
So mad about you (Yeah)

You've only got yourself to blame
You made me who I am today
And I don't ever wanna change (Yup)
I guess I'm gonna stay this way

I know that I been holding on for dear life
But I can't let go 'cause I'm

So mad about you
So mad about you
I'm mad about you
So mad about you

That's why I don't worry 'bout tomorrow
But right now, you can't see that 'cause you're so

Mad about the things you can never change
Mad about a thought that you can't explain
Mad about your heart when it breaks in two
But I'm mad about you
Mad about a fight from a year ago
Mad because you can't seem to let it go
Mad because I know your every move
'Cause I'm mad about-
I'm mad about you
So mad about you (Oh, yeah)
I'm mad about you (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
So mad about you

I'm just mad about you
So mad about you
I'm mad about you (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
So mad about you

I know and you know it ends in disaster (So mad about you)
I'm mad about you forever and ever (Just mad about you)
I know and you know it ends in disaster (So mad about you)
I'm mad about you forever and ever (I'm mad about you)
I know and you know it ends in disaster (So mad about you)
I'm mad about you forever and ever (Just mad about you)
I know and you know it ends in disaster (So mad about you)
I'm mad about you forever and ever (I'm mad about you)
I know and you know it ends in disaster (So mad about you)
I'm mad about you forever and ever (Just mad about you)
