

Shine On

Mcfly

I'm feeling alive
I'm walking the line
But this feeling inside
Bite down for the fight

No way to escape
Same thing everyday
So I jump on the train
Rub salt in the pain

But I let love shine on
Let love shine on
Trapped in a world where your dreams are blurred
And your fears outshine the feeling that you wanna be free
To be anything you wanna be
Let love shine on

I'm alone in the crowd
And my silence is loud
Everytime I shout out
I get shot down, oh yeah

Oh, you're all translucent
And I see straight through ya
Yeah, yeah, yeah

B-B-But I let love shine on
Let love shine on
Trapped in a world where your dreams are blurred
And your fears outshine the feeling that you wanna be free
To be anything you wanna be
Let love shine on

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
We gotta learn how to appreciate
Stop the hate, stop the hate
Stop the hate, stop the hate
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
We gotta learn how to appreciate
Stop the hate, stop the hate
You gotta let love

Let love shine on
Let love shine on
Trapped in a world where your dreams are blurred
And your fears outshine the feeling that you wanna be free
To be anything you wanna be
Let love shine on
