

Sink or Sing

Mcfly

Life's a song that I've never heard
How am I meant to know the words?
Everyone but me knows the melody perfectly
I don't know how I got this far
When did life even get this hard?
Everyone but me sings in harmony perfectly

But don't give in
When breathing is the hardest thing
You're either gonna sink or sing, woah
You thought you'd given everything
When suddenly a voice within
That knows you're gonna sink or sing
When your guard's down
Make yourself loud
And sing your heart out

Find it hard just to speak sometimes
How am I meant to know the lines?
Everyone but me knows the final scene perfectly
When did I turn invisible?
Feels like I'm barely here at all
Everyone can see all the worst in me perfectly

But don't give in
When breathing is the hardest thing
You're either gonna sink or sing, woah
You thought you'd given everything
When suddenly a voice within
That knows you either sink or sing
When your guard's down
Make yourself loud
And sing your heart out

Woah-oh-oh
Woah-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
When your guard's down
Make yourself loud
And sing your heart out

And sing your heart out

Woah-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
When your guard's down
Make yourself loud
And sing your heart out
Woah-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Make yourself loud
