

Catch Me

Mckenna Grace

Happy on my own
Content being alone, but then you loved me
I felt a lightning strike
When you called me "mine" and said you loved me
You said you loved me (loved me, loved me)

My heart was every shade of pink
You'd steal my breath and kiss my cheek
I felt forever when you touched my hand

Why'd you make me fall if you weren't gonna catch me?
Why love at all if it leaves you empty?
Staring at the wall cause your eyes are deadly
Just a single call's what it took to end me
End me
Why won't you catch me?

You said we'd live together
New York City's rainy weather never seemed so nice
Planning out our future
By the fire in Vancouver late at night
It felt so right

My heart was every shade of pink
Come steal my breath and kiss my cheek
And feel forever when you touch my hand

Why'd you make me fall if you weren't gonna catch me?
Why love at all if it leaves you empty?
Staring at the wall cause your eyes are deadly
Just a single call's what it took to end me

Why'd you make me fall if you weren't gonna catch me?
Why love me at all just to say you're not ready?
Kissing on a walk
Falling like the leaves
Autumn came and went
And it left me
Oh, it left me
Falling like the leaves

Why'd you make me fall if you weren't gonna catch me?
Did you love at all or just leave me empty?
You left me empty (falling like the leaves)
Staring at the wall cause your eyes still haunt me
Autumn came and went but you're still not calling
You left me falling (falling like the leaves)
Why'd you have to leave?
