There's nothing to be conscious, just go for it
Y-O-L-O On my way
If you go straight you'll find a way, don't go back
Now trust me and lets run, step hard on it
Break it down now

Your disregard also gives me strength
I don't care so keep it goin' uh
Evidence of confidence, you know why
Explode bam bam bam bam
Life's like a game
Take it all away, no back up
Trust me, I'm the leader

Keep your hands up, keep ya head up
All up there, I can treat you better
My heart is burning several times hotter
I don't need other words, just come out
It's the feeling of looking down from the sky
Small buildings are musical notes, feel the rhythm
It's just going up, there's no need to descent
Let's feel the thrill

Float up, float float up
Everybody get together and burn this night ya ya ya
We'll fly high, we're not afraid of heights
We're gonna keep you safe
Welcome to my world

Pop up right away woo ya ya woo ya ya
Leave here woo ya ya woo ya ya
Float above your head
Float above the earth
Float above the space
Pop up right away, pop up now
Fasten your seat belt

Right now feels like woo
Ain't nobody just as I feel
We'll go up like one and two
Just remember my name boo
#Fire #burn it #all night, this is the #private zone
You're my V.I.P, come on Turn on the music on

Time, run run and run
Bring up up up the mood
I feel good right now
The harmony of the stars in the universe
I hate playing so obvious
Isn't it too obvious? Say no to the similar Wake up! Wake you up! Come on, lets go, hurry up!

Just tell me anything, I'll take you there
I'll take you there
Just follow me, my heart is about to explode, boom!

Go up higher
It's the feeling of looking down from the sky
Small buildings are musical notes, feel the rhythm
It's just going up, there's no need to descent
Let's feel the thrill

Float up, float float up
Everybody get together and burn this night ya ya ya
We'll fly high, we're not afraid of heights
We're gonna keep you safe
Welcome to my world

A deeper look on the eye, a shower of starlight
I'll fill your heart
No matter what they say, I'm on my way
I want to go on my own way, on my way
I'm ready to fly, put the work behind
Get back up

Float up, float float up
Everybody get together and burn this night ya ya ya
We'll fly high, we're not afraid of heights
We're gonna keep you safe
Welcome to my world

Pop up right away woo ya ya woo ya ya
Leave here woo ya ya woo ya ya
Float above your head
Float above the earth
Float above the space
Pop up right away, pop up now
Fasten your seat belt

Put your hands up high, everybody up!
Don't be conscious, run, run!
Now trust me, come on everybody, float up
Float up
Over your head
