Me vs Hero

(Chorus)

You fake your lines and I'll play my part too
You know the truth, you know the truth
You fake your lines and I will follow soon
We know the truth, we know the truth

(Verse)

We still sat side by side, yet we never co-exist
I'm not joking, this ? just a ?
And from time to time I see us before my face
I know you find the edge to find a nocturnal rest
Cause though we don't stress, still tie us by our limbs
We turn and walk away but return again

(Chorus)

You fake your lines and I'll play my part too
You know the truth, you know the truth
You fake your lines and I will follow soon
We know the truth, we know the truth

(Verse 2)

Searching through my conscience to find some clarity
I stay by mine to fight(?), we only work to disagree
Discouraged by the bad intent of royalty
This relationship has chained the best and yet the worst of me

(Bridge)

We're back so close, we should work this time
It would break my soul to say goodbye

(Chorus)

You fake your lines and I'll play my part too
You know the truth, you know the truth
You fake your lines and I will follow soon
We know the truth, we know the truth

(Bridge)

The feeling's mutual, we go back to ?
(We're gonna bring someone else)
We're goin' back, to this baggage stay ?
(We're gonna scar the ?)
You fake your lines and I'll play my part too
You know the truth, you know the truth

(Chorus)

You fake your lines and I'll play my part too
You know the truth, you know the truth
You fake your lines and I will follow soon
We know the truth, we know the truth
