

Disposable

Meadowlark

Did I exist?
Were they your lips that I once kissed?
Can you tell me please?
And am I missed?
'Cause it feels like I've been dismissed
Soldier not at ease
In a world where we were once lovers
It doesn't feel like we were ever together

Yeah you make me feel
Disposable
Like I didn't mean nothing at all
Disposable
In with the new, out with the old

All I see
Is a place where it used to be "we"
And it kills me 'cause I'm lonely
And I see you all without me, happy
Was I just dreaming?
In a world where we were once lovers
It doesn't feel like we were ever together

Yeah you make me feel
Disposable
Like I didn't mean nothing at all
Disposable
In with the new, out with the old

I've been replaced in a place I thought that I belonged
When maybe I didn't all along
I've been replaced in a place I thought that I belonged
When maybe I didn't all along

Yeah, you made me feel disposable
Like I didn't mean nothing at all
Disposable
In with the new, out with the old
Disposable
Like I didn't mean nothing at all
Disposable
In with the new, out with the old
