

Headlights

Meadowlark

Good morning midnight
In sleepless nights I lay my head down
Down, down, down

I remember headlights
Seeing your face, I pulled my car 'round
'Round, 'round' 'round

Oh my, oh my God
I've been looking back
Did I say I love you?
Did I say I love you?
Oh my, oh my God
You've been holding back
Did you ever see me for who I wanted to be?

Summer in silence
Sat on the side
My mind waits for you
You, you, you
Careless timing
How were you to know I feel the way I do?

Oh my, oh my God
I've been looking back
Did I say I love you?
Did I say I love you?
Oh my, oh my God
You've been holding back
Did you ever see me for who I wanted to be?

The night had only just begun
I remember the headlights
I remember the feeling, so black and white
Whispering what we'd become
Youth of the daylight
I remember the feeling, so black and white

Oh my, oh my God
I've been looking back
Did I say I love you?
Did I say I love you?
Oh my, oh my God
You've been holding back
Did you ever see me for who I wanted to be?
