

Lighthouse

Meadowlark

Space

Not just for the lonely

Not just for the holy

Not just for the brave

Home

Not just for the weekend

Not just for a weak head

Or a soul on the mend

Starved of light

Looking at a starless sky

I did not know there was a lighthouse in my mind

I found a place to resist the why

I did not know there was a hideout behind my eyes

Save the storm for another night

My lighthouse

Safe

A place for the fallen

Away from the water

And away from the sea

When you don't see how life can be different

Just listen to silence

I did not know there was a lighthouse in my mind

I found a place to resist the why

I did not know there was a hideout behind my eyes

Save the storm for another night

My lighthouse

My lighthouse