

A Heartbeat Away

Mean Streak

It's like a demon, inside of me
It's in control and it will never set me free
I try to run, I try to fight
Still I am haunted, day and night

Do you remember when you close your eyes
Am I the savior or the sacrifice

She's my fire, my only desire
A heartbeat away
My fire, my only desire
A heartbeat away

It's all so fragile, a house of cards
The slightest touch and it will all just fall apart
Chasing the shadows, through bright and black
I try to run but I just end up coming back

There is a hole inside when you're not with me
Now I been waiting an eternity

She's my fire, my only desire
A heartbeat away
My fire, my only desire
A heartbeat away
