

Brothers Til The End

Mean Streak

Resurrection, a second call
We have a soul connection
We are as one and we will never fall
No regression, yet bittersweet
Is my confession
We stand as one and will always defeat
So close within when we are miles away
Nor shame or sin would mean betrayal

We're brothers 'til the end
Nothing will ever divide us
Brothers 'til the end
Destined together through bloodlines
Brothers 'til the end

Well I am evil you are hate
We are forever bounded
Our lives are united we sharing our fate
Like the ocean, and the rain
There is no turning point
Always together we grow through the pain
As generations slowly passing by
We are eternal you and I

We're brothers 'til the end
Nothing will ever divide us
Brothers 'til the end
Destined together through bloodlines
Brothers 'til the end
