

Heavy Metal Rampage

Mean Streak

Screaming, pounding - there ain't no way back
Roaring, like thunder - ready to attack
Marching, fighting - you will feel the steel
Burning, stealing - take on every deal

Raise your hands up, roaring voices
Raise your hands up, let it out

Twisting, turning - breaking every chain
Crossfire, blazing - blood runs down the drain
Grinding, moving - relentless in our way
Forcing, dictating - the price you have to pay

Raise your hands up, roaring voices
Raise your hands up, here comes hell

We've got it - you want it
United, fire and ice
We've got it - the flames will rise

Here comes the rampage
Heavy metal rampage

Craving, waiting - satisfy our greed
Blood lust, riot - taking what we need

Raise your hands up
Roaring voices
Raise your hands up
Let it out

We've got it - you want it
United, fire and ice
We've got it - the flames will rise

Here comes the rampage
Heavy metal rampage

We've got it - you want it
United, fire and ice
We've got it - the flames will rise
