

Judas Falling

Mean Streak

Thirty coins of silver
Out of money made from blood
Heading for the dark
As he's rejecting his own god

The last of all betrayers
Now completed with his kiss
Now his fall is endless
Down the flames of the abyss

Judas falling down
Bought for silver crown
Judas falling down
To Satan I am bound

The weight upon his shoulders
Of unbearable remorse
The rope around his neck
Is not enough to hold his fall

Judas falling down
Bought for silver crown
Judas falling down
To Satan I am bound

I, I have betrayed
All that I am
All that I said to believe in
Now, there ain't no way
There's no return
Forever in time I will burn

Judas falling down
Bought for silver crown
Judas falling down
To Satan I am bound
