

Last Nail in the Coffin

Mean Streak

Money rules
Money talks
This is our religion
Our new god
Unheard screams
Dying dreams
Blackened skies surround us
Everywhere

The end of the line
The way we know it
The point of no return
Signs where there
Mother Nature showed it
See the horizon burn
This is
The last nail in the coffin

Flames of war
Blinded eyes
Muted masses swallow
All the lies
War machine
Make believe
Spectacle and bread
Will set us free

The end of the line
The way we know it
The point of no return
Signs where there
Mother Nature showed it
See the horizon burn
This is
The last nail in the coffin

The last line in the coffin
The coffin
