

Retaliation Call

Mean Streak

So now they're in control, it's time to
Set, the madness free
Can't you see
Captivated by the spell, they're slowly
Open up, the gates of hell
Break the shell

Eyes of fire burning endlessly
Flames grow higher burning me

Turn your eyes towards the sky
Can you hear the thunder roar
Do you feel the earth is trembling
Retaliation call
Now we see those hands up high
Now we hear your voices call
We will never fall
Retaliation call

Where do we go from here, is there a way
To turn things right
A ray of light
Decapitated raped or burned, the only way
To go, the righteous way
Kill and pray
