

Apart

Means

You're so much apart
You take me where I go
Apart again
Over and over, you're pushing me
Pushing me through the storm
Away too far apart
Too much
You're gonna hold me again
Strong as the sun,
And with your grin,
You're gonna hold me once again,
Away too far apart
Too much
Apart again, apart again
I can barely see you with your hands nailed to the floor
Over so apart
Over so apart
And it's all that I can do not to tear it all to blue
Over so apart
Hope is on our side
We rise, we stand in red tonight
We stand with red on our side
We stand with hope on our side
