Sexy Music

Meat Puppets

Let me see everything Let me live forever Give me wings and show me how To control the weather

Give me the mountains Give me the sea Build a mighty tower Especially for me

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there Sexy music tumbled all around And then the music turned to emerald feathered goblins That cast their burning pearls to the ground

Fill the tower up with food The kind I love to eat Send a couple maidens Soft hands to rub my feet

Give me superhuman strength To wipe out what is wrong Give me all of everything I've wanted for so long

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there Sexy music tumbled all around And then the music turned to emerald feathered goblins That cast their burning pearls to the ground

Hot as the sun The red rubber fountain of ecstasy Flows from the palms of my hands Like the wind, hot as the sun

Hot as the sun The red rubber fountain of ecstasy Flows from the palms of my hands Like the wind, hot as the sun
