

Siege

Mechina

Legion, ready your weapons
We paint our faces and shields with foreign blood
Our destiny unfolds as siege breakers
Our only purpose is to conquer
Destabilize, our propaganda will push a divide into unrest
They leave with nothing left

Slowly forcing their hand
We breed traitors within

Your honor bound as the protectorate of this new world
We have enjoyed peace, for far too long
Shield your ears, now we sing our sword song
This war, between two world, will never be forgotten
Our hearts become frozen

Legion, rally your hatred
We patiently await the call, within the shadows
Our destiny unfolds as siege breakers
Our only purpose is to slaughter
Destabilize, these burning cities will be driven into famine
Their hearts must be broken

Slowly forcing their hand
We breed traitors within

Your honor bound as the protectorate of this new world
We have enjoyed peace, for far too long.
Shield your ears, while we sing our sword song
This war, between two world, will never be forgotten
Our hearts become frozen

We breathe, they weep
We feed in their defeat
In silence, we wait
Within the shadows until nightfall

Your honor bound as the protectorate of this new world
We have enjoyed peace, for far too long
Shield your ears, now we sing our sword song
This war, between two world, will never be forgotten
Our hearts become frozen
