

Suffer

Mechina

We all feel it in us
Our two worlds
Falling apart before our own eyes
Those forgotten
Those we abandon
They dance within our frozen dreams and make us suffer
The only path forward is to embrace the cold

There is nothing left to discover
Nothing driving our hearts much further
Holy machine, standing before me
Your lifeless eyes sing a song with only two words
Suffer human
Through our scars we suffer
The only pathway forward

There's nothing left to fight for
There's nothing left to die for
Suffer, human, slowly into the void
Eyes with no hope
Cold to the touch
A future so broken
Suffer human slowly into the void
Suffer human
Through our scars we suffer

With one life we endure the cruelty of time
The Ancients live
Go find the truth and suffer
The only path forward is to embrace the cold
We are not meant to live forever
Yet, our ashes become immortal
Listen to the tyrants desperately renouncing
Hear them sing
Suffer human
Through our scars we suffer
The only pathway forward

Suffer, human, slowly into the void
Eyes with no hope
Cold to the touch
A future so broken
Suffer human slowly into the void
Suffer human
Through our scars we suffer

Tell me at what cost are we willing to let go
Helpless as the world burns
Just let go
The only peace we find is in our dreams
