

Devoid of Sanity

Meden Agan

How many times you've been
Brought to your knees?
Despaired, gave up
Wondering alone
Hope is a sign
Among all wicked
Helps a human's mind
His disturbed thoughts
Suffocating dreams
Leaving you in agony
Fly higher from the stars
Where your soul's ascending free
Pray for one more chance
Let your mind set you free
How many times you've been
Brought to your knees?
Cried, despaired, gave up
Wondering alone
Looking for truths
In senseless whispers
Close your eyes
And try to realize
Suffocating dreams
Leaving you in agony
Fly higher from the stars
Where your soul's ascending free
Pray for one more chance
Let your mind set you free
Fly higher from the stars
Where your soul starts ascending
Free of pain and find a light
That-shines-so-bright
Just-for-to-night
Suffocating dreams
Leaving you in agony
Fly higher from the stars
