

Portal of Fear

Meden Agan

Waking up drowned in agony
With tears filling your eyes
(The pain cloaks your mind)
Another night of suffering
Your nightmare has become alive
Mors tenebrae aeternae
Infernus obscurus mundus
Your mind's in turmoil
Forcing you to cry
An unknown fear grips my heart
My sanity is falling apart
(The void of life consumes you)
Time cannot heal the inner scars
Left to remind that tragic day
Your mind's in turmoil
Forcing you to cry
And forms a portal of fear
Just before you die
"Portal of fear, voices you hear
Message is clear, the end is near"
Many times you tried to repent
To wash out the evil you unleashed
(Salvation is not at hand)
But still you know it's not enough
To end the vision of decay
Your mind's in turmoil
