Salvation

Meden Agan

A burden in my chest
Uneasy feeling
I'm locked inside a trap
Or am I dreaming?

My days are far too long
Will I ever bring myself to stop
My self-destruction
Or will I hurt myself some more?

Save me
I can't stop it
Killing me
Once again

My sanity drifts away
My soul is fading
The breathing in my room
Is slowly ending

My memories are gates
To the only world I've ever known
Inside this darkness
All hope for glimpse of life is lost

Save me
I can't stop it
Killing me
Once again
Carry me
Through the doorway
I can't see
For myself
