

Veil of Faith

Meden Agan

This endless debate, myth and reality
Truth lies under the dust of time
How many things we were meant to ignore
Concealed under the veil of faith
Wars caused by study of ancient stories
Unending destruction, driven by lies

All this time, you've tried to raise your voice
Look into the depths of your soul
Trying to believe, what is right and wrong

Through a void of reason, we all had to walk to reach the other side
All this time, you've tried to raise your voice
Trying to believe, what is right and wrong

Religions formed to enslave the minds
Fanatics commanded by smoke and mirrors
Devoting their lives to words of preachers
Misguided, been promised the afterlife
Just pawns on the chessboard of vile clerics
Swords driven through the hearts of non-believers
