

Jealousy

Medina

She's got sun kissed skin and freckles
Dotted on her face like drops of tiny diamonds
Legs up to her neck and an outfit to die for
She's got eyes that sparkle and a smile so sweet

She's got everyones attention
When she opens up to speak
All eyes on her
Like an angel from the fires of hell
She's slowly taking you away from me

But what do I care?
See if I care
That's the only way I'm gonna get through
Oh what do I care?
See if I care
That's the only way, oh I wish I could

Try to not care
But I do care
I know I outta trust you when I stay in my corner
But I do care
Oh I do care
Cause the fish is taking your attention from me

I saw the way that you were staring at her
Like you used to look at me when we first met
Just a little wave when she's walking pass us
I even caught myself being infatuated

It drives me crazy just to see her
When I know how popular she really is
Like an angel from the fires of hell oh
She's slowly fucking me up inside

But what do I care?
See if I care
That's the only way I'm gonna get through
Oh what do I care?
See if I care
That's the only way, oh I wish I could

Try to not care
But I do care
I know I outta trust you when you say that you got me
But I do care
Wish I didn't care
But I feel like she is more exciting than me

Now my heart cries on the inside
The thoughts about you and her
Oh I cant make it stop
Yes my heart cries cause it feels like
I might die from jealousy

Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy

Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy

Try to not care
But I do care
I know I outta trust you when you say that you love me
But I do care
Wish I didn't care

Now my heart cries on the inside
The thoughts about you and her
Oh I cant make it stop
Yes my heart cries cause it feels like

Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
Dying from jealousy
