

Liquid Courage

Medina

I was not myself today
But I wanna stay this way
I am stepping from the shame
I'm screaming til the sun [?]

I am more than what you say
Now I'm reaching for the real me
Finally its time to make a change make a change, make a change

I raise my glass to a little bit of that liquid courage
cheers to you, cheers to me
So here's a toast to a little more of that liquid courage
In five minutes you will see

Who I am
Who I really am
I'm breaking out, swearing on this glass
Who I am
And I wont be down
If my past keeps holding me back

Now I'll be da-da-da-da-dancing in the streets
Whenever liquid courage pouring over me

Who I am
This is who I am

I feel crazy, happy, open
I'm not afraid to love myself
So tonight I'll come unbroken yeah
I decided to break the shit

Here I stand for you naked
No I don't wanna hide no more cause we re leaving through this secret yeah Its what I've been waiting for

I raise my glass to a little bit of that liquid courage
cheers to you, cheers to me
So here's a toast to a little more of that liquid courage
In five minutes you will see

Who I am
Who I really am
I'm breaking out, swearing on this glass
Who I am
And I wont be down
If my past keeps holding me back

Now I'll be da-da-da-da-dancing in the streets
Whenever liquid courage pouring over me

Who I am
This is who I am

Cheers to all the nights out there
Here's to all the freaks
Shut up to the insecure
Be who you wanna be

Limits are your enemy
And now I let you know
You're beautiful when you are letting go

Who I am
Who I really am
I'm breaking out, swearing on this glass
Who I am
And I wont be down
If my past keeps holding me back

Now I'll be da-da-da-da-dancing in the streets
Whenever liquid courage pouring over me

Who I am
This is who I am
