

Concessions

Medium Build

I'm making concessions
For every little thing in my life
And I'm licking all the letters
The paper cuts my tongue like a knife
And I'm just a fucking doormat for you baby
Diamonds on the soles of your shoes
And you're telling all my secrets
Lucky I've got nothing to lose

And we could go together if you want, if you wait
We could do whatever if you want, if you wait
We could go together if you want, if you wait
But you're never gonna wait no you'll never ever wait for me

I'm cleaning your messes
And paying all the people you owe
Do you remember last weekend
Well you really did put on a show
And the guilty look you shot me baby
It told me everything I needed to know
Oh it told me everything I needed, it told me everything I need ed, told me everything I needed to know

And we could go together if you want, if you wait
We could do whatever if you want, if you wait
We could go together if you want, if you wait
But you're never gonna wait no you'll never ever wait for me

And we could have had it all but you gave it away
We could have had it all but you gave it away
We could have had it all but you gave it away
Yup
