

Known By None

Medium Build

When I was young I wanted everyone to know me
But eventually, I was keen to be known by one
Love comes with pain, burns out or fades 'til you're lonely
Look around your life, it's clear that you're known by none

Move in with someone you meet when you're drunk at a party
Tell them your secrets but leave out a couple of parts
Fight, fuck and cry
Now you wish you could die
You're so lonely
Look around your life, it's clear that you're known by none

Now here we are
Sobered up and bored as hell
You're in love with someone else
Someone I thought I could be
We had a real good run
Now I got what I want and I get to be known by none

When I was young I wanted everyone to know me
Eventually one day I wake up alone on a couch
Now you got the house and the dogs, and I just keep on running
Yeah I got what I want now I get to be known by none

Now here we are
Sobered up and bored as hell
You're in love with someone else
Someone I thought I could be
We had a real good run
We had so much love
Now I got what I want and I get to be known by none
